

Please join
the Oregon Film & Video Office at a special screening of

MEEK'S CUTOFF

benefiting the Oregon Cultural Trust

OREGON FILM

Oregon
Cultural Trust

OREGON ARTS COMMISSION

Look for this special benefit screening event
on Facebook and Twitter.

A Western set on the Oregon Trail in 1845, the film stars Michelle Williams, Zoe Kazan and Paul Dano as settlers on their way to build new lives in the Pacific Northwest. Filmed entirely in Harney County, Oregon, the film is due to be released in theaters in April and has been shown at the Venice, Toronto, and Sundance Film Festivals.

Tuesday, March 15, 2011, 7:00 PM

The Historic Elsinore Theatre

180 High Street Salem, Oregon 97301

All Tickets $20

Available at all Tickets West locations:

<http://ticketswest.rdl.com/Venue.aspx?ven=PC-ELS>

Or at the door

Information: shoot@oregonfilm.org or (503) 229-5832

Photo: In a scene from Meek's Cutoff, a small band of settlers cross the Oregon desert in 1845. The film was directed by Kelly Reichardt and written by Portland writer Jon Raymond and is based on historical events.